ANNOUNCEMENTS

Women's Retreat: Ladies- look for a letter from Rebecca Minogue this upcoming week with practical details, a packing list, etc. Needed: Faux greenery wanted for women's retreat. We are looking for some faux greenery to help the environment at women's retreat. Particularly any vine-like garland and eucalyptus. Pictures would be helpful! Please call, text, or email Bethie Wolf at 734-754-3245 or bethieluvland@gmail.com.

Job Opportunity: We are looking for a "few good men" to help out our son Gabe. Gabe is a 15 year old with developmental delays. He needs a fun guy to help him with a few daily skills but mostly to hang out with go places and help him exercise. We are looking for someone with a valid driver's license, who knows how to have fun and can learn to redirect Gabe if he becomes overwhelmed. Text Megan at 612.454.9641.

Job Opportunity: Saint Agnes School is looking for substitute teachers for grades K-12. If interested, please send a resume to Becca DeMarais, bdemarais@saintagnesschool.org

LEGACY CONFERENCE

Over 40 members of the Emmaus District attended the annual Kairos Legacy Conference for young professionals hosted in Minneapolis this January.

"Legacy Conference is a unique opportunity for young adults to let the Lord into our lives in a deeper or new way. We're all in a unique and often transitioning time of life with work, community, relationships, and all other aspects of vocation. Legacy shakes things up at the beginning of a new year, allowing us to take a hard look at what's before us and respond to the way the Lord is leading."

-Anne Tracy

"We gathered as one body, not just for fellowship, worship, and teaching, but to renew and lay down our lives to the Lord." -Anh Pham

"The Legacy Conference was an fantastic opportunity to get together with other young professionals from other areas of the country. The relationships that were built and the conversations that were had are going to help me advance the Kingdom of God in the workplace."

-Peter Gjengdahl

"This was my first experience with Kairos and the Legacy Conference. This conference provided me an opportunity to grow deeper in my relationship with the Lord by meeting people from all over North America and sharing a time of worship together. A couple highlights were being able to show people around my city, Minneapolis, along with taking time to discuss what our faith looks like in a professional context." -Kaly Kohns

"By the end of my weekend at Legacy Conference, I received a much needed renewal in my mission to be a witness and a light in my workplace."

-Ericka McGovern

"The Legacy Conference is an amazing experience and encounter with God, where we can worship, heal, and grow together as a Body and see the bigger picture of what we're really a part of. I've been attending this Conference for about 6 years and have met some of my best friends there. It's truly an insight into the Church as Jesus intended it and I am so glad to be a part of it."

-Ana Teresa Deliz

MEET STEVE KAUTZMAN

Home: West St. Paul

Parish: St. Louis King of France, Saint Paul

Occupation:

Business Analyst at EQ Shareowner Services

How did you become involved with CCR?

I moved here with a band called The Imperfections in the summer of 1999. We played for about a year after moving here and then broke up. We had gigs in places like the Living Room Music Café, The New Union and played at some SPO coffee house events hosted at households on Grand and Dayton.

Introduction to SPO led to attending summer formation and Festivals of Praise (FOPs), and eventually to formation courses in SPO and CCR. After that I was in a few single men's groups. Each small group eventually "liquidated to Sacrament of Matrimony" at which point our singles group merged with a married couple's group to become our current small group.

Small Group: Erisman Group, Cherokee Bluffs District

Where you are in CCR formation: Covenant Member

What about CCR helps you grow in your faith: The formation, small groups, gatherings, and yearly men's retreat keep me most grounded and moving forward in faith. I appreciate the gift of community and the relationships that support, encourage, and challenge me to deepen my faith. I'm also moved by how we encourage, honor, and serve one another. I witness and experience these tangible graces in interactions with my small group and the broader Community.

Hobbies/favorite family activities: Reading and exercise. I love to write poetry in the form of songs. I'm in a band with my brother Brian who lives in Fargo. We call ourselves the Brothers Kautzman.

What is something CCR members might not know about you? I'm originally from Mott, North Dakota. Mott is a town of fewer than 1,000 people, but it's on the world globe. Some people say that's because it's a small enough word to fit in that corner of the state. Others say it's because the guy who made globes was from Mott. I like to think it's the character of the people from Mott that has put it on the globe. But who knows!
